

Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of Trading by Insiders, Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and
Policy on Determination of Legitimate Purpose

1. INTRODUCTION

Insider trading means dealing in securities of a company listed/traded on any stock exchange in India based on, or when in possession of, unpublished price sensitive information.

With a view to govern the conduct of insiders on matters relating to insider trading, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had formulated Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (including any statutory modification and re-enactment thereof) (hereinafter referred to as 'the Regulations').

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 9 inter alia, requires all listed companies to frame a Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by insiders by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule B to the Regulations.

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 8 requires all listed companies to formulate and publish on its website, Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule A to the Regulations.

Raminfo Limited ("RIL/the Company") has formulated this Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of trading by Insiders' ("Code"). All the Directors, Designated Persons, officers and other connected persons of RIL are governed by the Code.

All the Directors, Designated Persons, officers and connected persons of RIL are advised to carefully go through and familiarize themselves with and adhere to the Regulations and the Code.

The Company endeavors to preserve the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information ("UPSI") and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

Every Director, Officer, Designated Person and connected person of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such UPSI obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No Director, Officer, Designated Officer and connected persons may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party.

The Company hereby stipulates that this code of conduct shall apply to and is to be complied by all directors, officers, Designated Persons and connected persons.

3. Role of Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit committee, or to the Chairman of the Board of directors on quarterly basis or at such frequency as may be stipulated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (including any statutory modification and re-enactment thereof) and shall also administer the Company’s Code of Conduct and other requirements under the SEBI Regulations.

4. Restrictions on Communication and Trading by Insiders

A. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information:

- i. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- ii. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- iii. Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - a. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - b. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- B. The Board shall be responsible to maintain a structured digital database of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared which shall contain the following information;
- i. Name of such recipient of UPSI;
 - ii. Name of the Organization or entity to whom the recipient represent
 - iii. Postal Address and E-mail ID of such recipient
 - iv. Permanent Account Number (PAN) or any other identifier authorized by law, if PAN is not available.

The Board shall also be responsible to ensure that such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trials to ensure non-tampering of such database.

- C. Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- i. No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information;

When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession;”

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following : –

- a. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without of this Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- b. in the case of non-individual insiders: –

- the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and
- appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the Code and the regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

- c. the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with the procedure hereinafter specified.

- ii. In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons.

5. Internal Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report trading by Insiders:

The Code of Conduct is formulated to regulate, monitor and report trading by Designated persons and their immediate relatives towards achieving compliance with SEBI regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B thereto, without diluting the provisions thereof, in any manner.

- i. Designated persons and their immediate relatives on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons as defined in this Code") in the Company shall be governed by the following internal code of conduct.
- ii. They may execute trades subject to compliance with this Code and SEBI Regulations.
- iii. Need to know:

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated, provided or allowed access, to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

- a. "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- b. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.
- c. Limited access to confidential information: Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

6. Trading Plan:

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

- i. Trading Plan shall:
 - a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - c. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - d. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

- e. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - f. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- ii. The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of SEBI regulations and the Codes and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- iii. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.
- iv. However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.
- v. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the Plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
