EV SALES EXPECTED TO JUMP 4x BY 2025

Fuelled by the government's policy intervention and entry of a flurry of new players with multiple models, electric vehicles (EV) sales in India have been growing at a rapid pace.

The overall sales of EVs are likely to jump to 1,644,000 units in FY25 and go up further to 15,331,000 units by 2030, a Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu India report stated.

Albeit on a low base, the overall sales jumped to 428,213 units in FY22, up from 134,463 units the year before. In FY17, the overall sales were a mere 56,399 units. Emerging Asia markets represent the largest micro-mobility markets, a recent McKinsey report, 'Future of Asia', found. With the increasing cost-competitiveness of electric models and regulators incentivising consumer adoption, e-two-wheelers will become a predominant mode of transport in the region. By 2030, India and Indonesia will become the second- and third-largest e-two-wheeler markets in the world after China.

M&M eyes new segment in e-SUV market with XUV400

SHALLY SETH MOHILE
Mumbai, 9 September

Mahindra and Mahindra is looking to create a new segment in the e-SUV market with the XUV400 — its first electric SUV offering, which will go on sale from January 2023, a top company official said.

Meanwhile, as the company pursues its EV strategy in the personal EV segment at an accelerated pace, it will finalise plans for a new facility in the 3-6 months, Rajesh Jejurikar, executive director — farm and automotive sector, M&M said.

The XUV400, which will compete with the Tata e-Nexon, claims to have a range of 456 km (as certified by the Automotive Research

The XUV400 is Mahindra's first e-SUV offering

Association of India), the highest in the C-segment. Tata Motors' Nexon EV and Nexon EV Max have a range of 312km and 437km, respectively.

On the lines of the XUV300, the model marks a fresh start to Mahindra's EV innings in the personal segment. It will be followed by XUV.e and BE (born electric) range 2024 onwards. The firm expects 30 per cent of its sales from EVs by 2027.

The five electric SUVs in the works will be sold under two distinct brands — XUV and BE. It aims to leverage the strong presence of the XUV brand in the market to gain acceptance, BE will be a new brand focused on EV.

The EV penetration in the C-segment of the SUV market, which sells an average of 32,000 units a month is less than 1 per cent with two small players.

"There is a big volume upside available. The idea is to create the market, that's why the XUV400 becomes an important milestone in our EV journey," said Jejurikar.

Mahindra will declare the pricing of the model closer to its launch in January. "We see potential to sell 3,000-5,000 units a month if priced at ₹18 lakh," wrote Kapil Singh of Nomura Research.

'Not substantiated': CCI drops JSW Paints' plea against Asian Paints

SHARLEEN D'SOUZA
Mumbai, 9 September

The Competition Commission of India (CCI) has disposed of JSW Paints' plea, which stated that Asian Paints blocked its entry into the decorative paints segment.

The antitrust body stated in its order dated September 8: "Asian Paints has been able to demonstrate that some of its conduct or practices adopted via the dealers were in furtherance of its terms of doing business with such dealers. It was not to keep JSW Paints away from the market."

JSW Paints had gone to CCI in 2019 and alleged that immediately after the launch of its decorative paints business, Asian Paints had targeted dealers/distributors/retailers partnering JSW Paints.

It directed them to stop dealing with JSW and threatened stopping supplies to these dealers. It also asked dealers to remove displays of JSW Paints' products from their retail shelves and threatened of not allowing them discretionary dis-

"ASIAN PAINTS HAS BEEN ABLE TO DEMONSTRATE THAT SOME OF ITS CONDUCT OR PRACTICES ADOPTED VIA THE DEALERS WAS IN FURTHERANCE OF ITS TERMS OF DOING BUSINESS WITH SUCH DEALERS AND NOT TO KEEP JSW PAINTS AWAY FROM THE MARKET"

Competition Commission of India counts, among others. JSW Paints also told CCI that Asian Paints allegedly pressurised enterprises that provided infrastructure facilities like warehouses to JSW Paints to not stock their products.

The enterprise that provided the warehouse facility rescinded the contract with JSW Paints on account of Asian Paints asking them to choose between itself and JSW.

It also alleged that the rescission of contract led to delay in the launch of JSW's products in Hubli. This resulted in loss of revenue, reputation and credibility.

The antitrust body's director-general (DG) concluded that Asian Paints enjoys a position of dominance in the decorative paints market on the basis of its highest share for a substantial period of time.

"Asian Paints, the market leader, made a net addition of 401 and 816 dealers from 2019-20 to 2020-21 (total of 1,217). This is against new entrant JSW Paints' net addition of 722 and 869 dealers during the same period (1,591). Therefore, the fact and figures of net addition of dealers during the period contradicts allegation of denial of market access to JSW Paints," the order stated, adding, "The DG found that even the allegation of dealers being under pressure from Asian Paints not to deal with JSW Paints is not substantiated."

MBSI to invest ₹5,000 cr by 2025-end, says MD

DEEPAK PATEL
New Delhi, 9 September

Moto Business Service India (MBSI), a vehicle-leasing subsidiary of Yamaha Motors, is planning to invest about ₹5,000 crore by 2025-end to build an inventory of about 300,000 units, its Managing Director Shoji Shiraishi said on Friday.

MBSI has 3,300 units in its fleet and it expects to grow up to 9,500 units by the end of this year, Shiraishi told Business Standard in an interview.

To date, MBSI has partnered with 12 companies, including Rapido, Rentelo, Zypp Electric and Fullfilly, and leased its units to them or their drivers.

For MBSI, one unit is equivalent to one two-wheeler. A four-wheeler is equivalent to 10 two-wheeler units and a three-wheeler is equivalent to three two-wheeler units for the company.

While MBSI is a subsidiary of Yamaha Motors, it procures vehicles from various auto companies in India. MBSI was established in March 2021 and signed its first partner — bike rental company Royal Brothers — in December 2021.

"MBSI has invested ₹50 crore in the market and in order to grow 100 times by 2025-end, we need 100 times the investment," Shiraishi said.

Shiraishi said about 25 per cent of this investment will be equity inflow while the remaining 75 per cent will be raised through loans — either from local banks or from international institutions.

"We would like to bring this kind of massive investment because the demand is there," he stated.

By the end of this year, the number of MBSI's partners — companies that have taken its vehicles on lease — will double to approximately 25, Shiraishi said.
